Ral Partha extends a warm welcome to our valued customers. Another year is before us; another year of new ideas, new games and new miniatures.

This year is no exception. Within these pages you will find scads of new miniatures with which to swell your collections. Miniatures that will challenge your painting skills, add dimension to your campaigns and, of course, give the edge you need to conquer your enemies.

For TSR's ADVANCED DUNGEONS & DRAGONS® miniatures, Ral Partha has introduced three new product lines: PLANESCAPE™, BIRTHRIGHT™, and COUNCIL OF WYRMS™. All three lines offer exciting new miniatures of famous personalities and powerful monsters.

For FASA's BATTLETECH® miniatures, Ral Partha has released more than a score of new mechs, and ground and aerotech vehicles from the latest two Technical Readouts. 1996 will see even more of the armored titans made available for battle.

Throughout the rest of the 1996 Catalog you will see that additions have been made to all of Ral Partha's licensed and in-house lines. Later this year, look for the release of Ral Partha's New Elven Army in the Fantasy Collector Series.

And there will be more. As the year unfolds Ral Partha will release more of your favorite miniatures for your favorite games. Keep in touch with what's new by visiting Ral Partha at our new website on the internet. Our home page makes available a regularly updated catalog complete with product photos and a forum for our customers to ask questions and share ideas with Partha and other fans of the industry. If you are surfing the net, drop by and say hello.

We want to thank you, our loyal customer, for your inspiration and support. Good luck and happy hunting.

RP HOBBY HINT

An important step in painting a miniature is priming the figure. Primer creates a more conducive surface for painting than bare metal. This will help your paint-job endure the ravages of time. Whether using Partha spray or brush-on primer always apply in a thin coat, let dry and apply again until the figure is sufficiently covered. This will form a better base as well as prevent the primer from obscuring the detail of your figure.

Ral Partha offers both white and black primers. This color choice is for your personal preference.

Be sure to use a grease-cutting dishwashing detergent to clean figures before you primer them. This will help the primer, paint and glue stick better by removing powder, dust and grease from the figure's surface.
